THE THALIA .- At a meeting of the Thalia, lately held, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, John Pruess; secretary, William Kuchenbacher; tressurer, Louis Herbert. It was resolved to give semi-weekly entertainments during the season, at Philharmonic hall. The Thalia is an institution which should be encouraged.

THE EPIZOOTIC .- The horse disease has passed Cairo, and is now in Memphis. It passed through, by the steamer Illinois, the other day, and did not remain even for a day. The fact is, Cairo is so healthy that neither beast nor man can get sick here. When they wish a good case of sickness they must go away from home and

STEVE, the bar-keeper, has opened fine saloon in Louis Blatteau's old stand, where can be found, at all times, Steve serving his customers with the best of drinkables. 11-22-tf

A Coupler .- We have been requested by an able pilot who is also a poet to give a place in our columns to the following :

"A cautious look around he stole; His bag of chink he chunk, And many a happy smile he smole, and many a wink he wunk."

And who wouldn't after indulging in dose of that choice, prime old rye, only to be had at the Old Delmonico.

INCORRECT.-The Paducah 'Kentuckian mys Cairo can beat the world for negro voting; that our colored population numbers one thousend, and that eight hundred negro votes were polled at the late presidential election. The 'Kentuckian' is not posted. There are 3,500 negroes in Cairo, for Paducah this day at 44 o'clock p. m. and eight hundred negroes did vote in Cairo at the late election.

POTATOES FOR PADUCAH.-The Paducah 'Kentuckian' says: "One of our citizens has several car loads of Dubuque potatoes on the track at Cairo. The probabilities are that they are all frozen stiff." Well, it has been cold enough in Cairo lately to freeze potatoes, but Johnson can make things warm along the track of his road, and we have no doubt he has saved the Paducah potatoes from the frost.

RAPPLE.-A fine mocking bird is to be raffled off in a short time at Louis Blatteau's saloon, on Eighth street. For further particulars call at the saloon.

THE TOBACCO WARRHOUSE .- Mesers. Straughn & Hinkle of the Baliard tobacco warehouse, are getting matters well in hand. They will be ready to receive tobacco on the first of next month, and then they will push things. They have come to stay, and we have no doubt they will establish a warehouse in which, within two years from this date, more business will be done than in all the warehouses of petering-out Paducah. We are not in the habit of boasting. We mean what we say, and we have kept far within bounds in making the statement we have.

AT THE ST. CHARLES,-Tucker, the general passenger agent of the Illinois Central railroad, temporarily struggles said to always get it down.

"NEW CHARTER."-The casual reference made by us yesterday to the uselessness of the select council, or Cairo house of lords, and other consideration, have created some inquiry in the city, as to whether it would not be well to throw away the present cumbersome city government, and adopt the state law providing for the organization of cities and villages. We hope the discussion may be continued and that it may result in the circulation of a petition praying the council to submit the question to a vote of the

WHAT DID HE WANT .- Wednesday night, about 2 o'clock, Jailer McHale heard some one moving about in the jail yard very mysteriously, evidently "after no good," as one of our most comely policemen expresses it. Mac waited until he was satisfied the intruder was attempting to communicate with one of the prisoners, when he discharged two shots from his revolver in the direction of the wouldbe jail deliverer. Such getting out or the way! The fellow ran with the speed of the antelope-almost as well as Grant did on the 6th inst. A cold chisel which he left behind was conclusive evidence that he intended to help one of the prisoners to

> HOME AGAIN .- Mr. Goldstine, of the firm of Goldstine & Rosenwater, has returned home from New York, where he has been making large purchases of winter dry goods, clothing, etc. Luckily, Mr. Goldstine had completed all his purchases before the Boston fire, and therefore before the late advance in prices. Mesers. Goldstine & Rosen water can, consequently, sell at prices exceedingly below those now current in this market. They ask the public to call and inspect their goods and ascertain their prices, being satisfied that no one will go away from the store, leaving behind them the bargains this firm

FINE JOB WORK .- Mr. Dickson, our foreman of THE BULLETIN job printing department having returned from journey of observation and pleasure through the Canadas and the New England states, is again turning out famous jobs of printing. A letter-head for Pollock & Co., of Walbridge, and a business card for Halliday Brothers, as specimens of plain letter press REMEMBER the singing to-night at the printing are hard to beat. The Halliday card is a thing of beauty. With Dickson and Marnel and our other jobbers, in the composition room, and Cassatt, monarch of all he surveys, in the press room, THE BULLETIN can challenge comparison of its work with any printing office in the West. And then, besides, our prices are re low as the lowest. Try us.
